SCHEDULE

This Constitutional Amendment takes effect upon being declared adopted in accordance with Section 7 of the Illinois Constitutional Amendment Act.

Senators L. Madigan - Radogno - Philip offered the following Senate Joint Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, The Asian long-horned beetle (Anoplophora glabripennis), a very destructive insect pest which attacks a wide variety of healthy, living trees, was first found in New York City in 1996; and

WHEREAS, Infestations of the Asian long-horned beetle have been traced to raw lumber used to pack goods shipped from China; and

WHEREAS, Infestations of the Asian long-horned beetle were first discovered in the Ravenswood neighborhood in Chicago, Illinois in July, 1998; and

WHEREAS, Subsequent to the discovery of initial infestations, local, State, and federal inspectors have conducted intensive surveys and have located additional infestations in Summit in Cook County and Addison in DuPage County; and

WHEREAS, In late July, 1998, the City of Chicago issued a beetle alert notifying the public about the Asian long-horned beetle and efforts to identify and eradicate infestations in the City; and

WHEREAS, On July 28, 1998, the Illinois Department of Agriculture issued a quarantine order for the Asian long-horned beetle in the Ravenswood neighborhood of Chicago; in August, the State expanded the quarantine area around the Ravenswood neighborhood, and extended its quarantine to include the area around Summit in Cook County and Addison in DuPage County; and

WHEREAS, The Illinois House of Representatives held a public hearing in Chicago on August 17, 1998 on the status of Asian long-horned beetle infestations in the Chicago metropolitan area; and

WHEREAS, On August 23, 1998, the Illinois Department of Agriculture declared trees infested with the Asian long-horned beetle to be an official "public nuisance" under the Insect Pest and Plant Disease Act; and

WHEREAS, The U.S. Department of Agriculture provided funds to help pay the cost of removing infested trees on public and private property, and the City of Chicago used its own personnel and equipment to remove infested trees from City property in the infested areas; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that the Illinois Department of Agriculture be commended for the professional and expeditious manner in which it implemented measures to pinpoint areas infested with the Asian long-horned beetle, establish a quarantine of infested areas, and remove infested trees; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Illinois Department of Natural Resources be commended for providing assistance, through its Forest Protection and Health Management Program, in the form of grants to plant trees on public property to replace infested ones which have been removed; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the U.S. Department of Agriculture be commended for providing assistance in the form of technical expertise, personnel, and funds to locate and remove infested trees; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the City of Chicago be commended for its timely
